Vicki L Jones is a native of Baltimore, Maryland. Ms. Jones began her career as a Design Assistant at London Fog Rainwear. Her love of theatre led her to design costumes for local theatre productions, including Dracula for director Steve Yeager. Choosing to pursue costume design exclusively, Ms. Jones moved to New York City accepting the position of Wardrobe Supervisor for the Negro Ensemble Company. She designed for the NEC, New Federal Theatre and Billie Holiday Theatre, costuming such notable actors as Denzel Washington, S. Epatha Merkerson, Barbara Montgomery, John Amos and Phylicia Rashad. Vicki supervised costumes on numerous productions working with actors, Samuel L Jackson, Jackee Harry, Debi Morgan, James Pickens and David Alan Grier. Ms. Jones has worked with directors Woodie King Jr., Spike Lee, Melvin Van Peebles and Samm-Art Williams.

Ms. Jones is the founder and Executive Director of Bahari Sisters Inc., www.baharisisters.org a non-profit organization based in Baltimore which empowers Kenyan women. Ms. Jones is also founder & Executive Director of Bethesda Arts Inc., a non-profit with the mission to train educationally challenged youth and young adults in theatre arts. Although Bethesda is currently inactive, Ms. Jones is writing a script for development at Bethesda. Ms. Jones worked for the State of Maryland, Department of Housing for over seventeen years. She retired in 2016 to lead her non-profit organizations.

Vicki graduated from Drexel University in Philadelphia with a BA in Clothing Design. She studied Theatre Management at New York University and Television Writing at Morgan State University in Baltimore. Ms. Jones received her Master's Degree in Liberal Arts from Johns Hopkins University.
